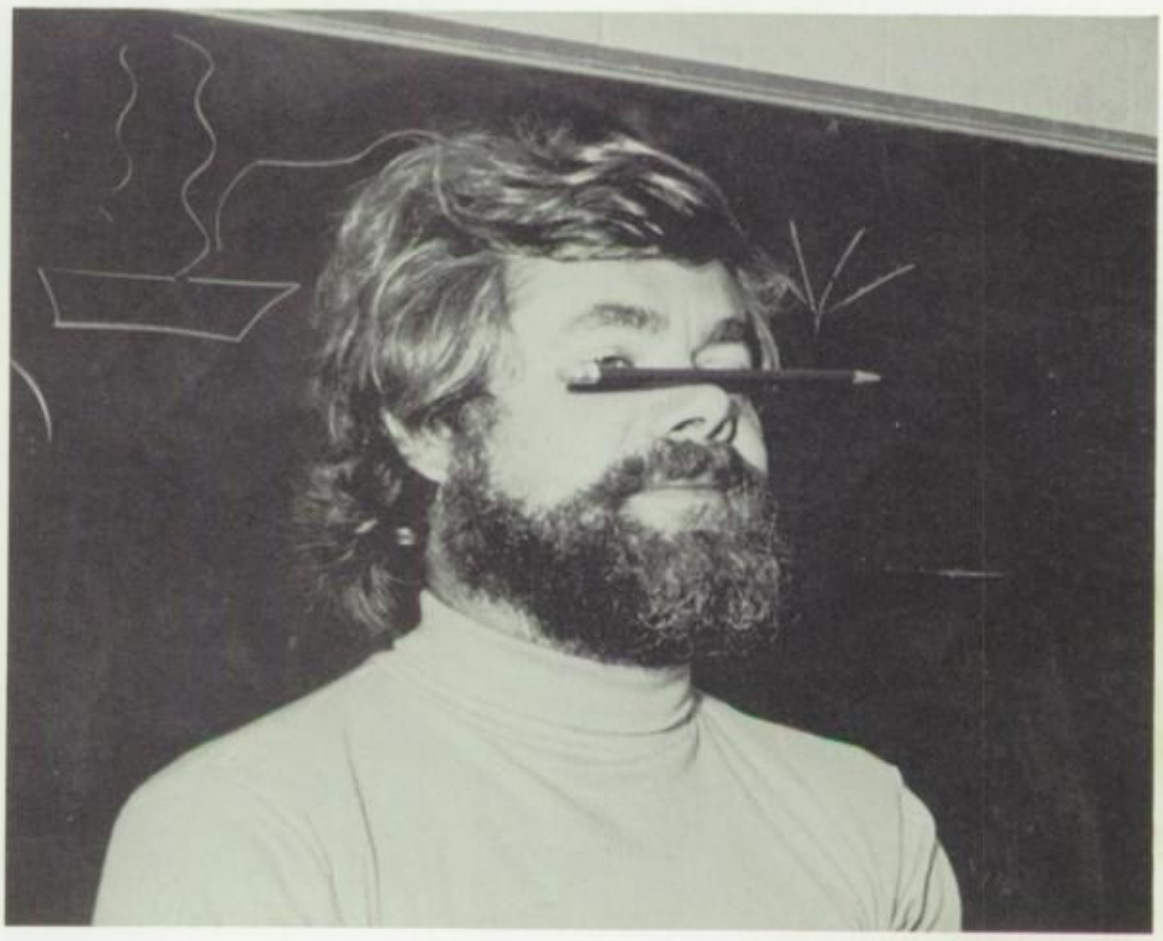
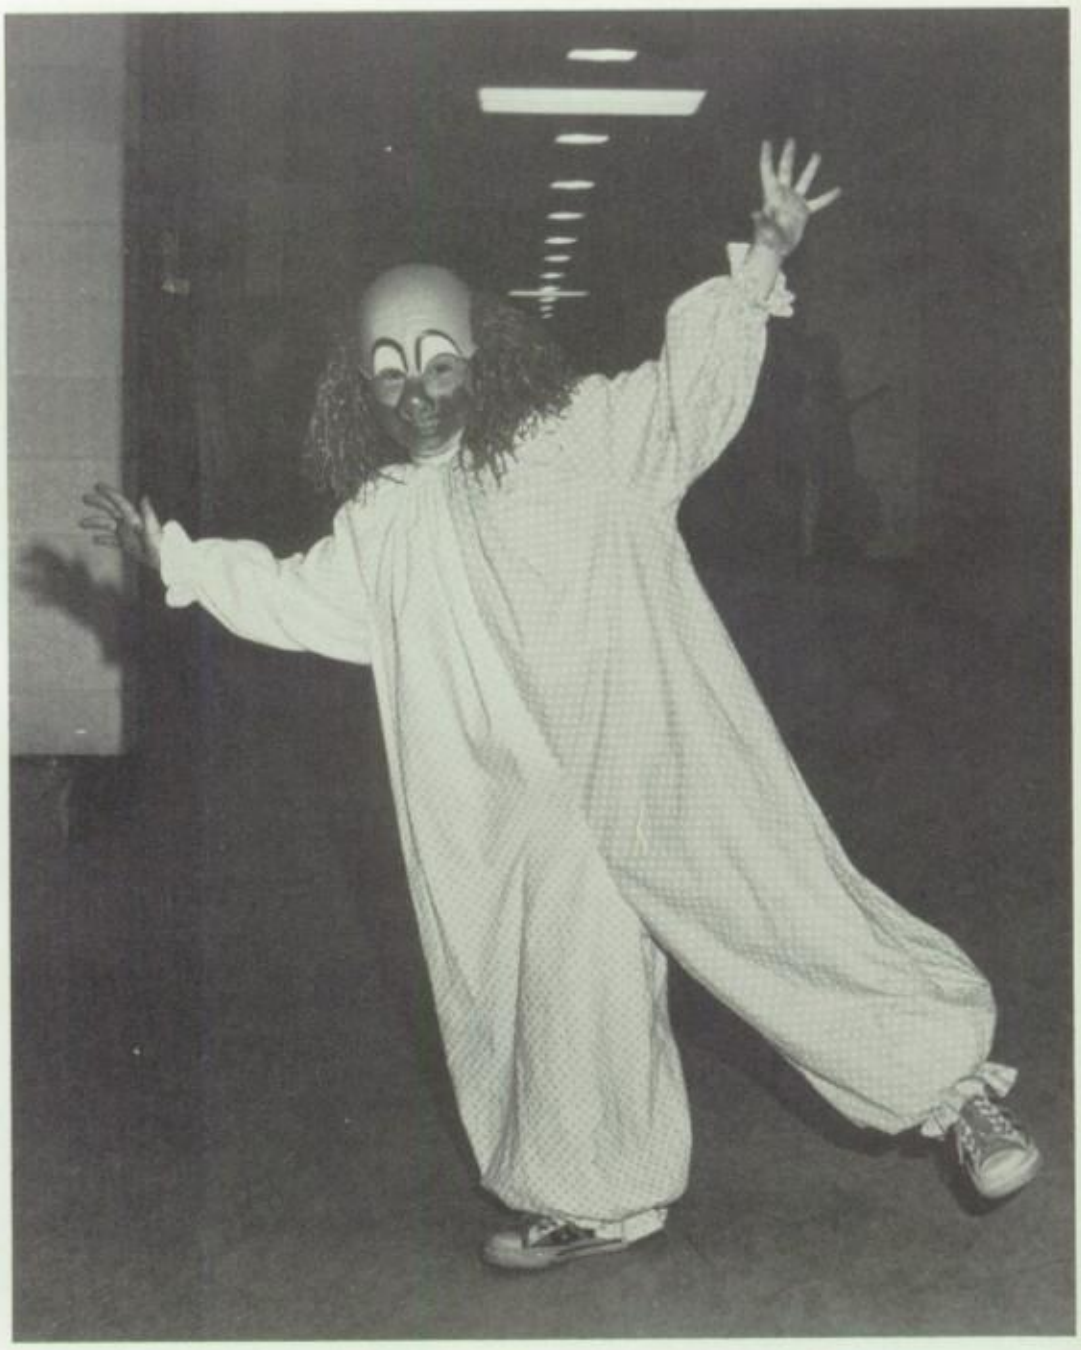
Those Were the Days -

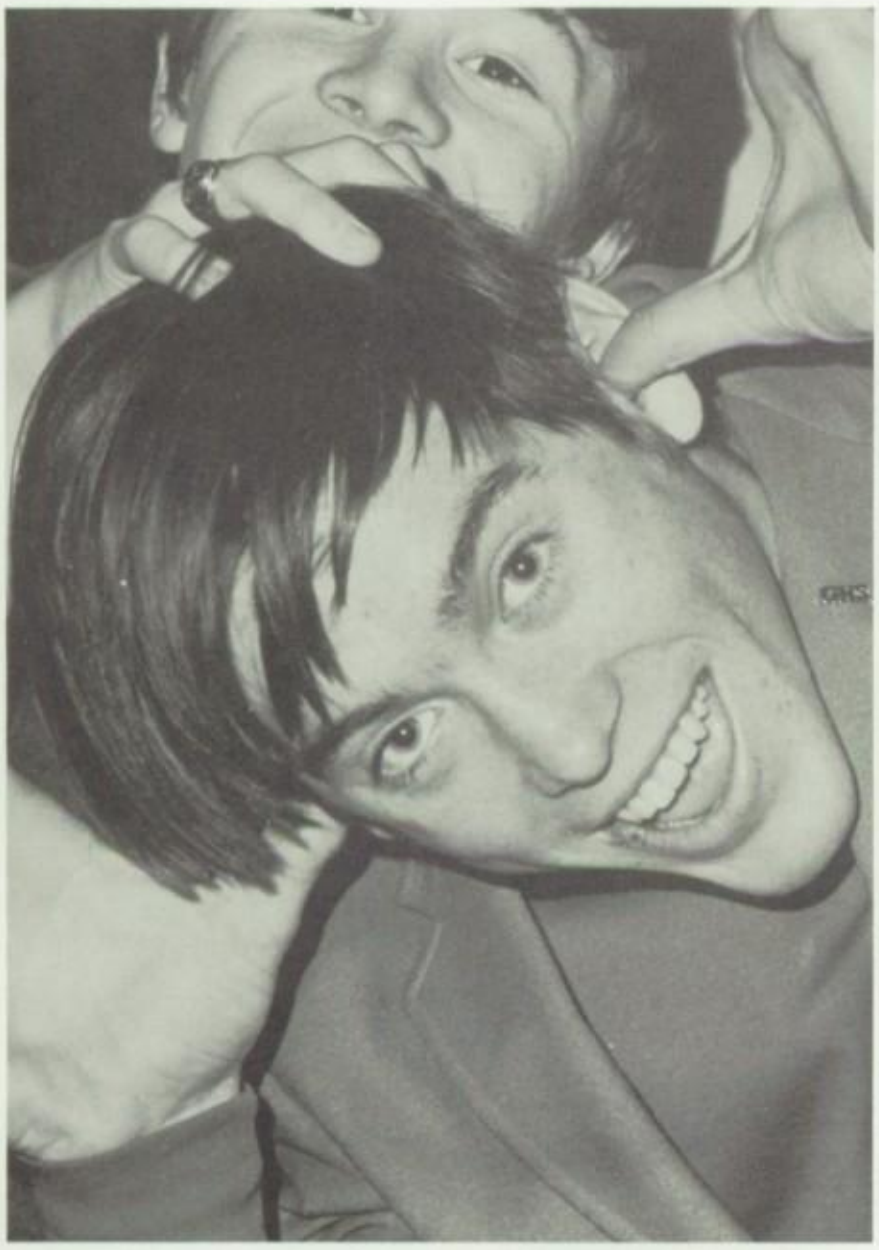
My Friend



Those were the days when elementary seemed so far away . . . and what is this teacher going to do when his nose straightens? Remember when you played chess in the classroom?

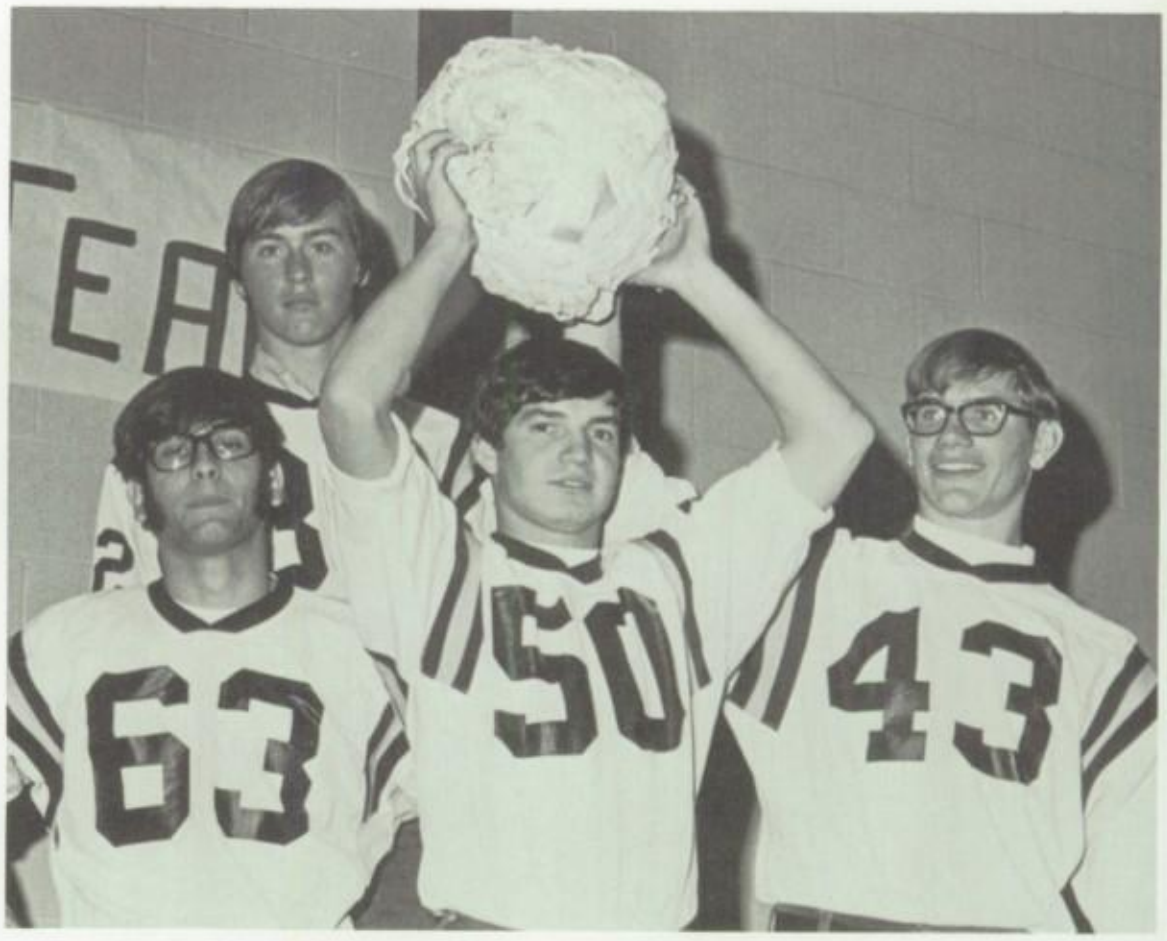


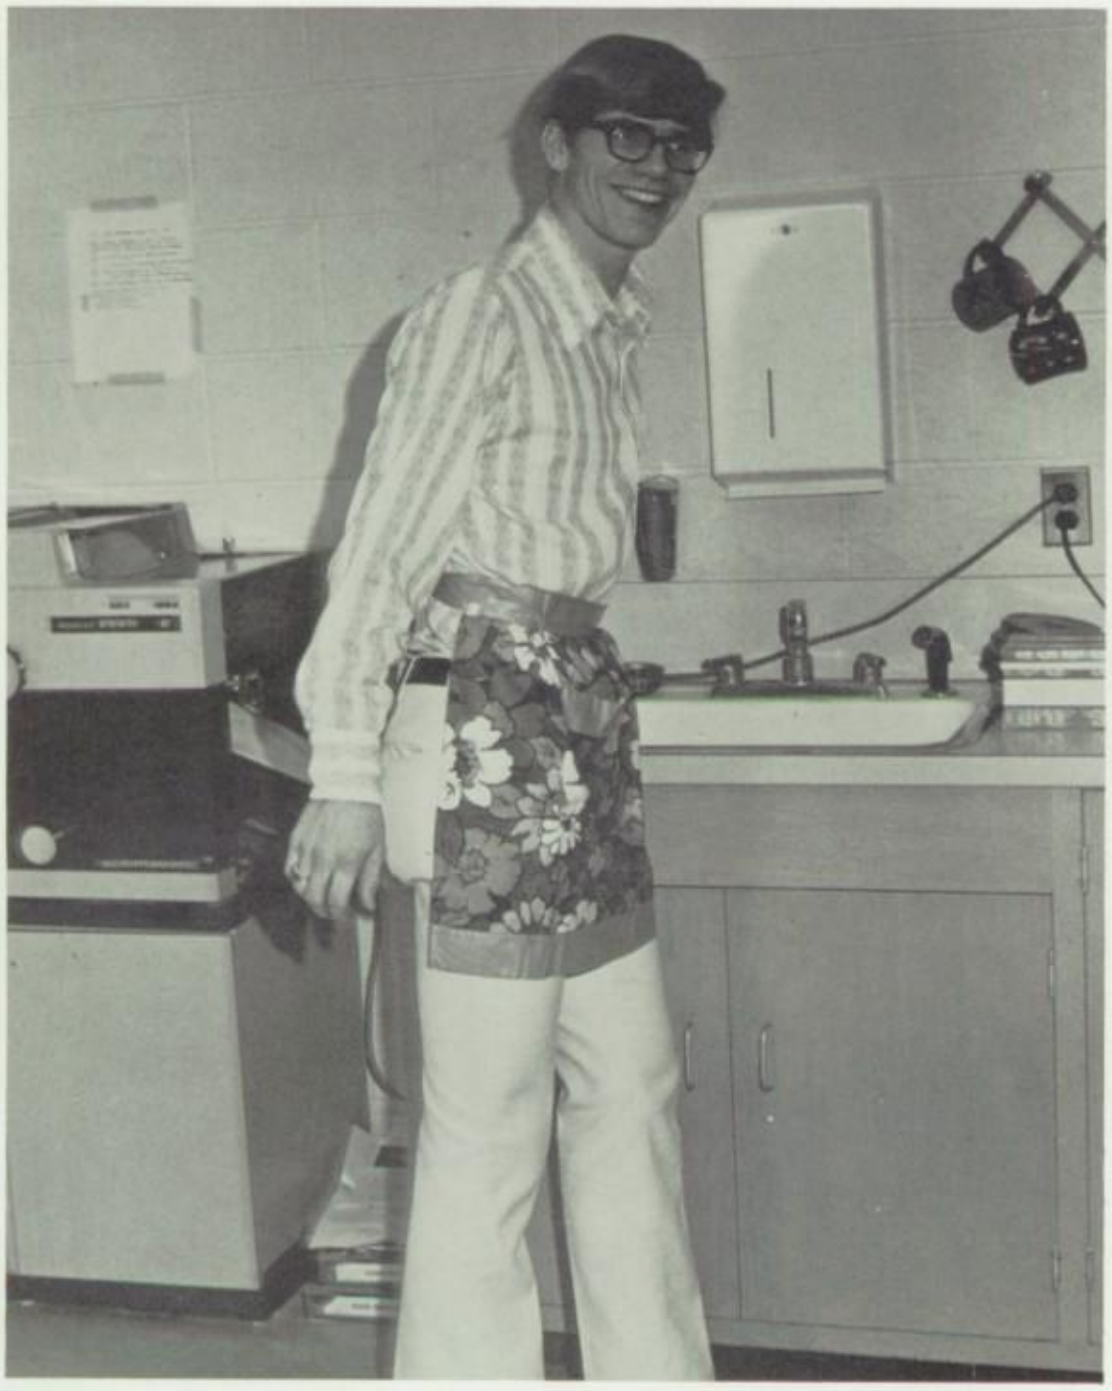
We'd Sing and Dance Forever and a Day



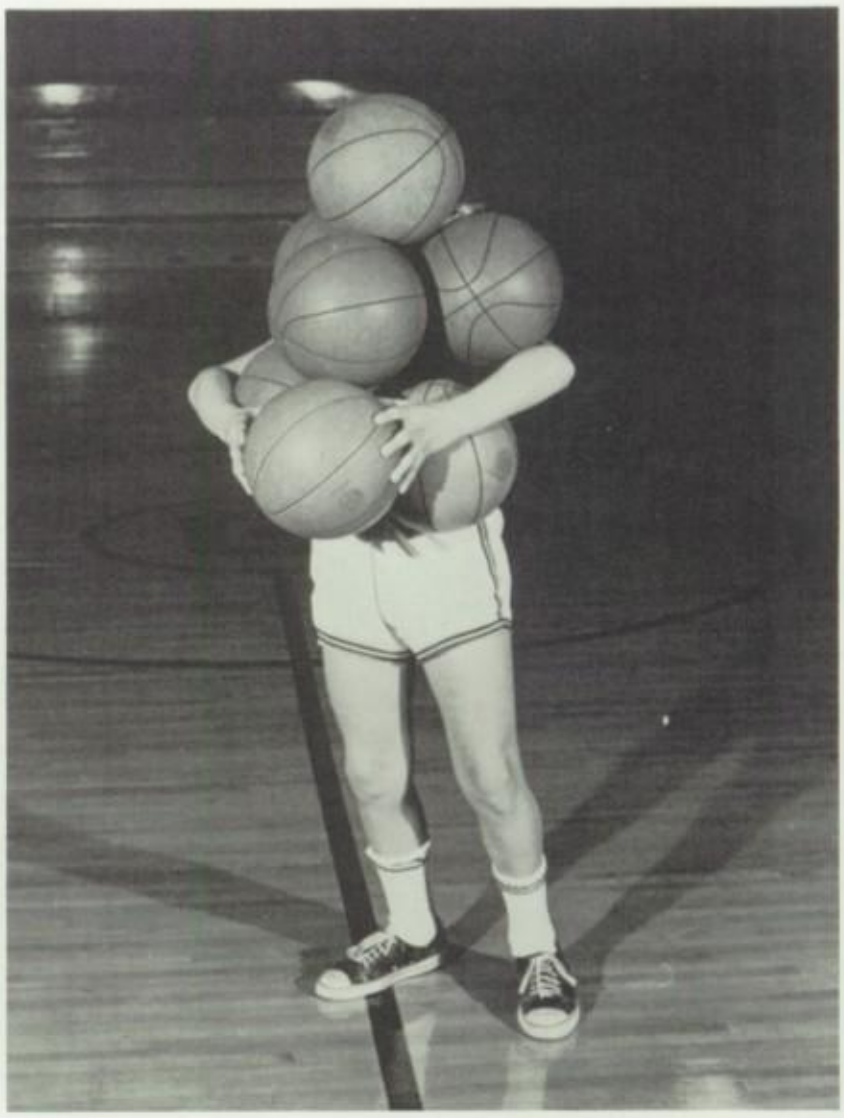
School can really be fun at times. Look at the cheerleaders as raisins; a clown in the halls; a student smirking at the typing teacher; senior nuts; and landing in a sea of air. People still smile in school.

We'd Live
The Life
We Choose . . .



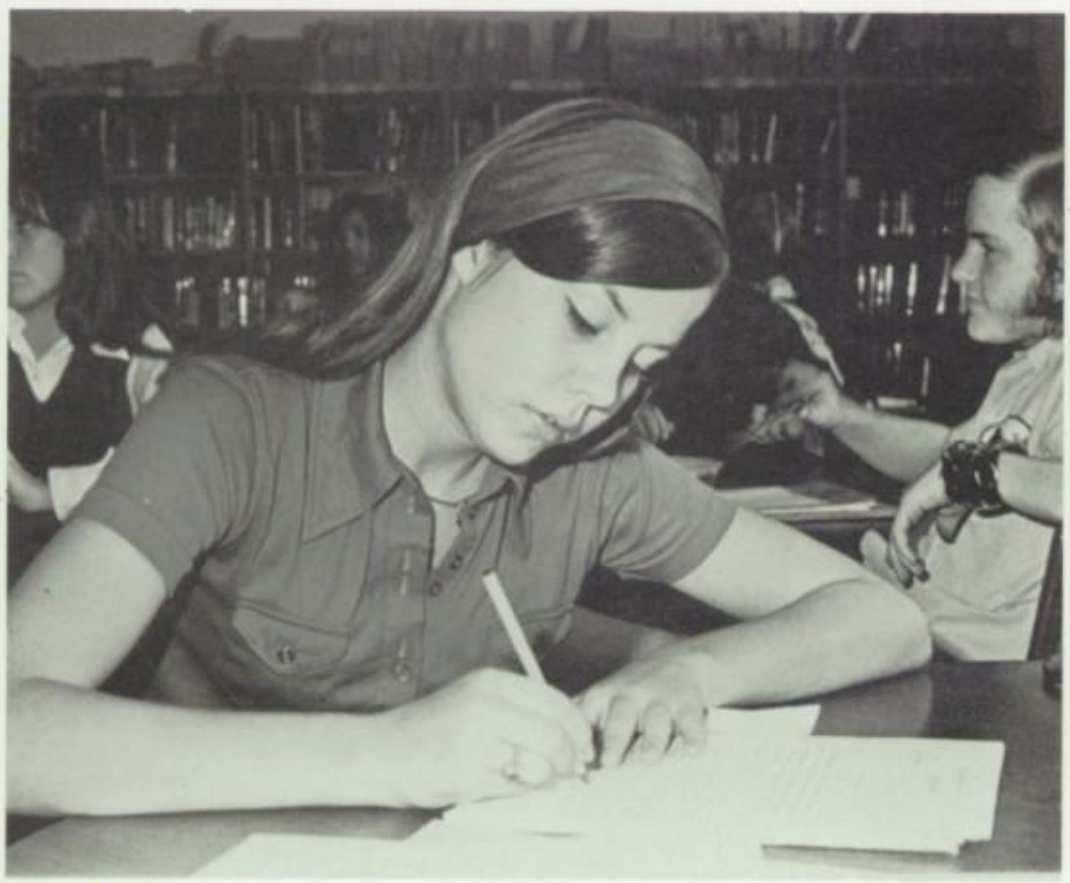


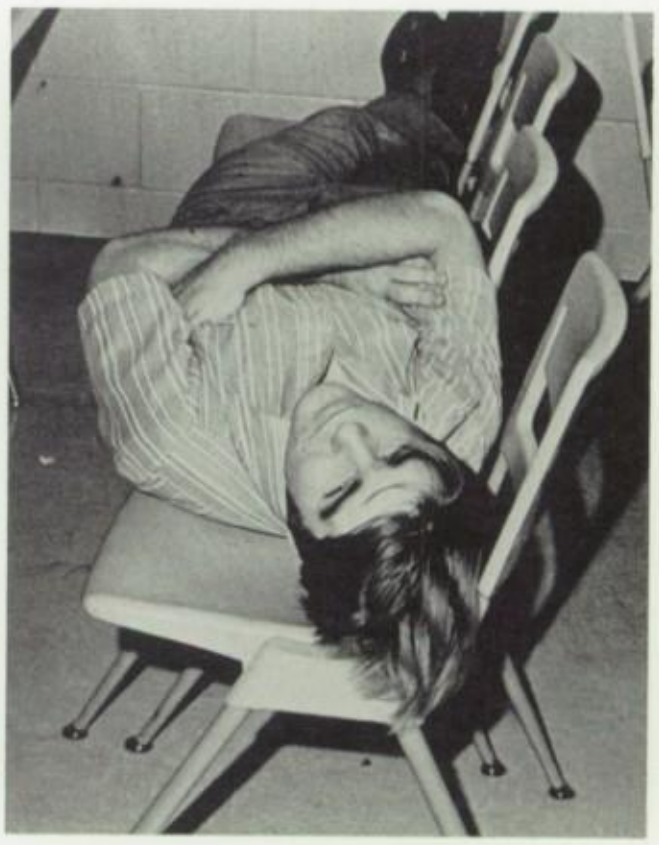
We have freedom of choice in our school. We can choose what we want to do. Football are for some people- supposedly drinking in the senior play are for others. And what do you know! At least some guys will still do dishes. Other people wanted to feed hungry people for Christmas.



One teacher seems discouraged while the other one is being thrown into the shower after a victory. Student council fights for better ideas and changes by using the right to vote. Students fight for good grades but still find the time for a rest on some chairs.

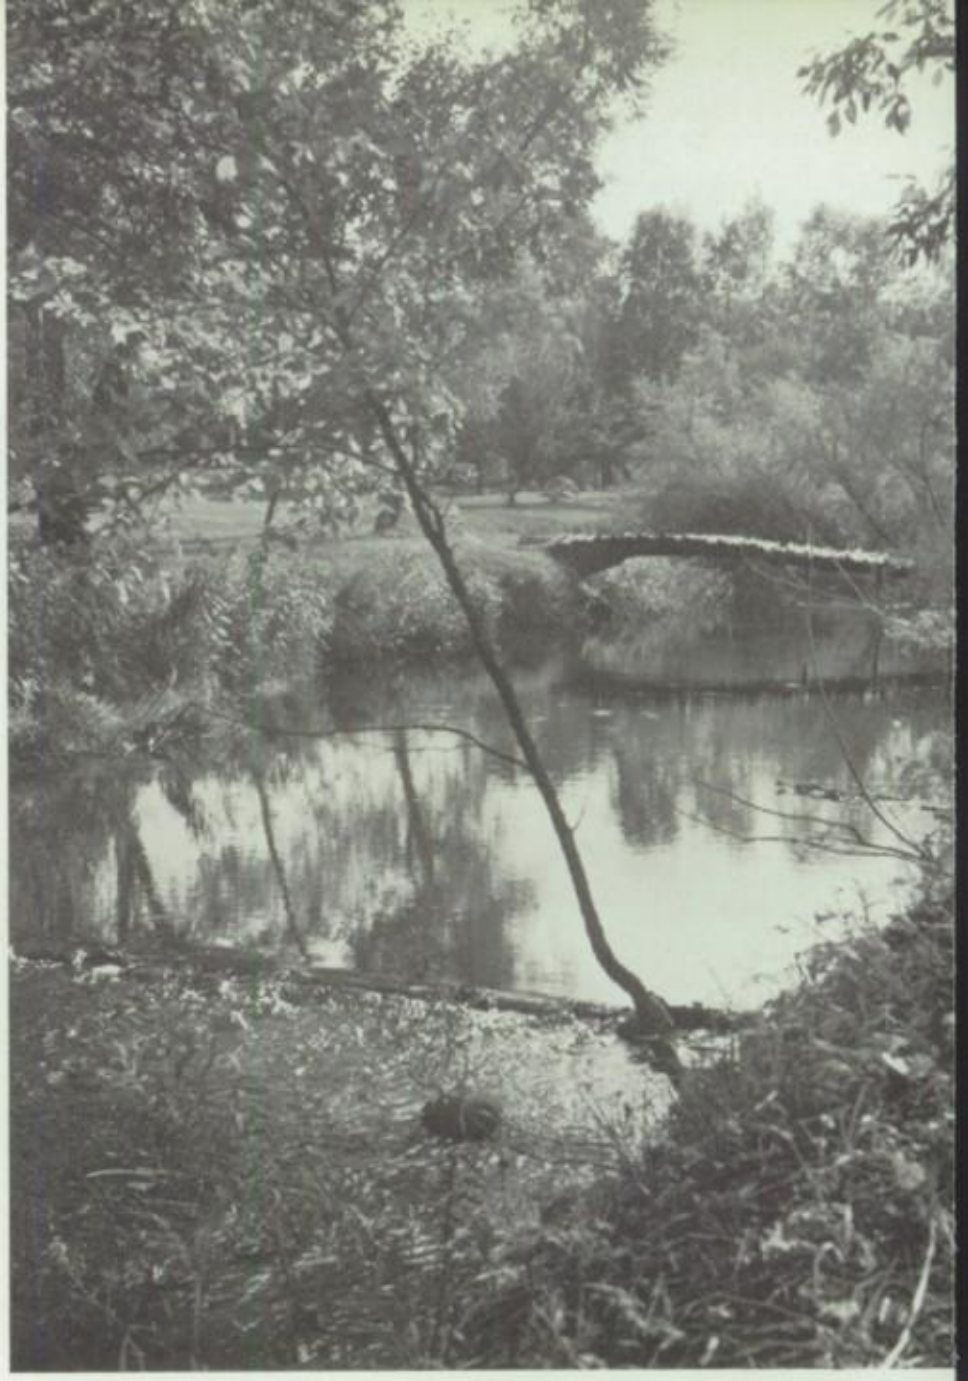
We'd Fight and Never Lose





We Were Young and Sure to Find Our Way

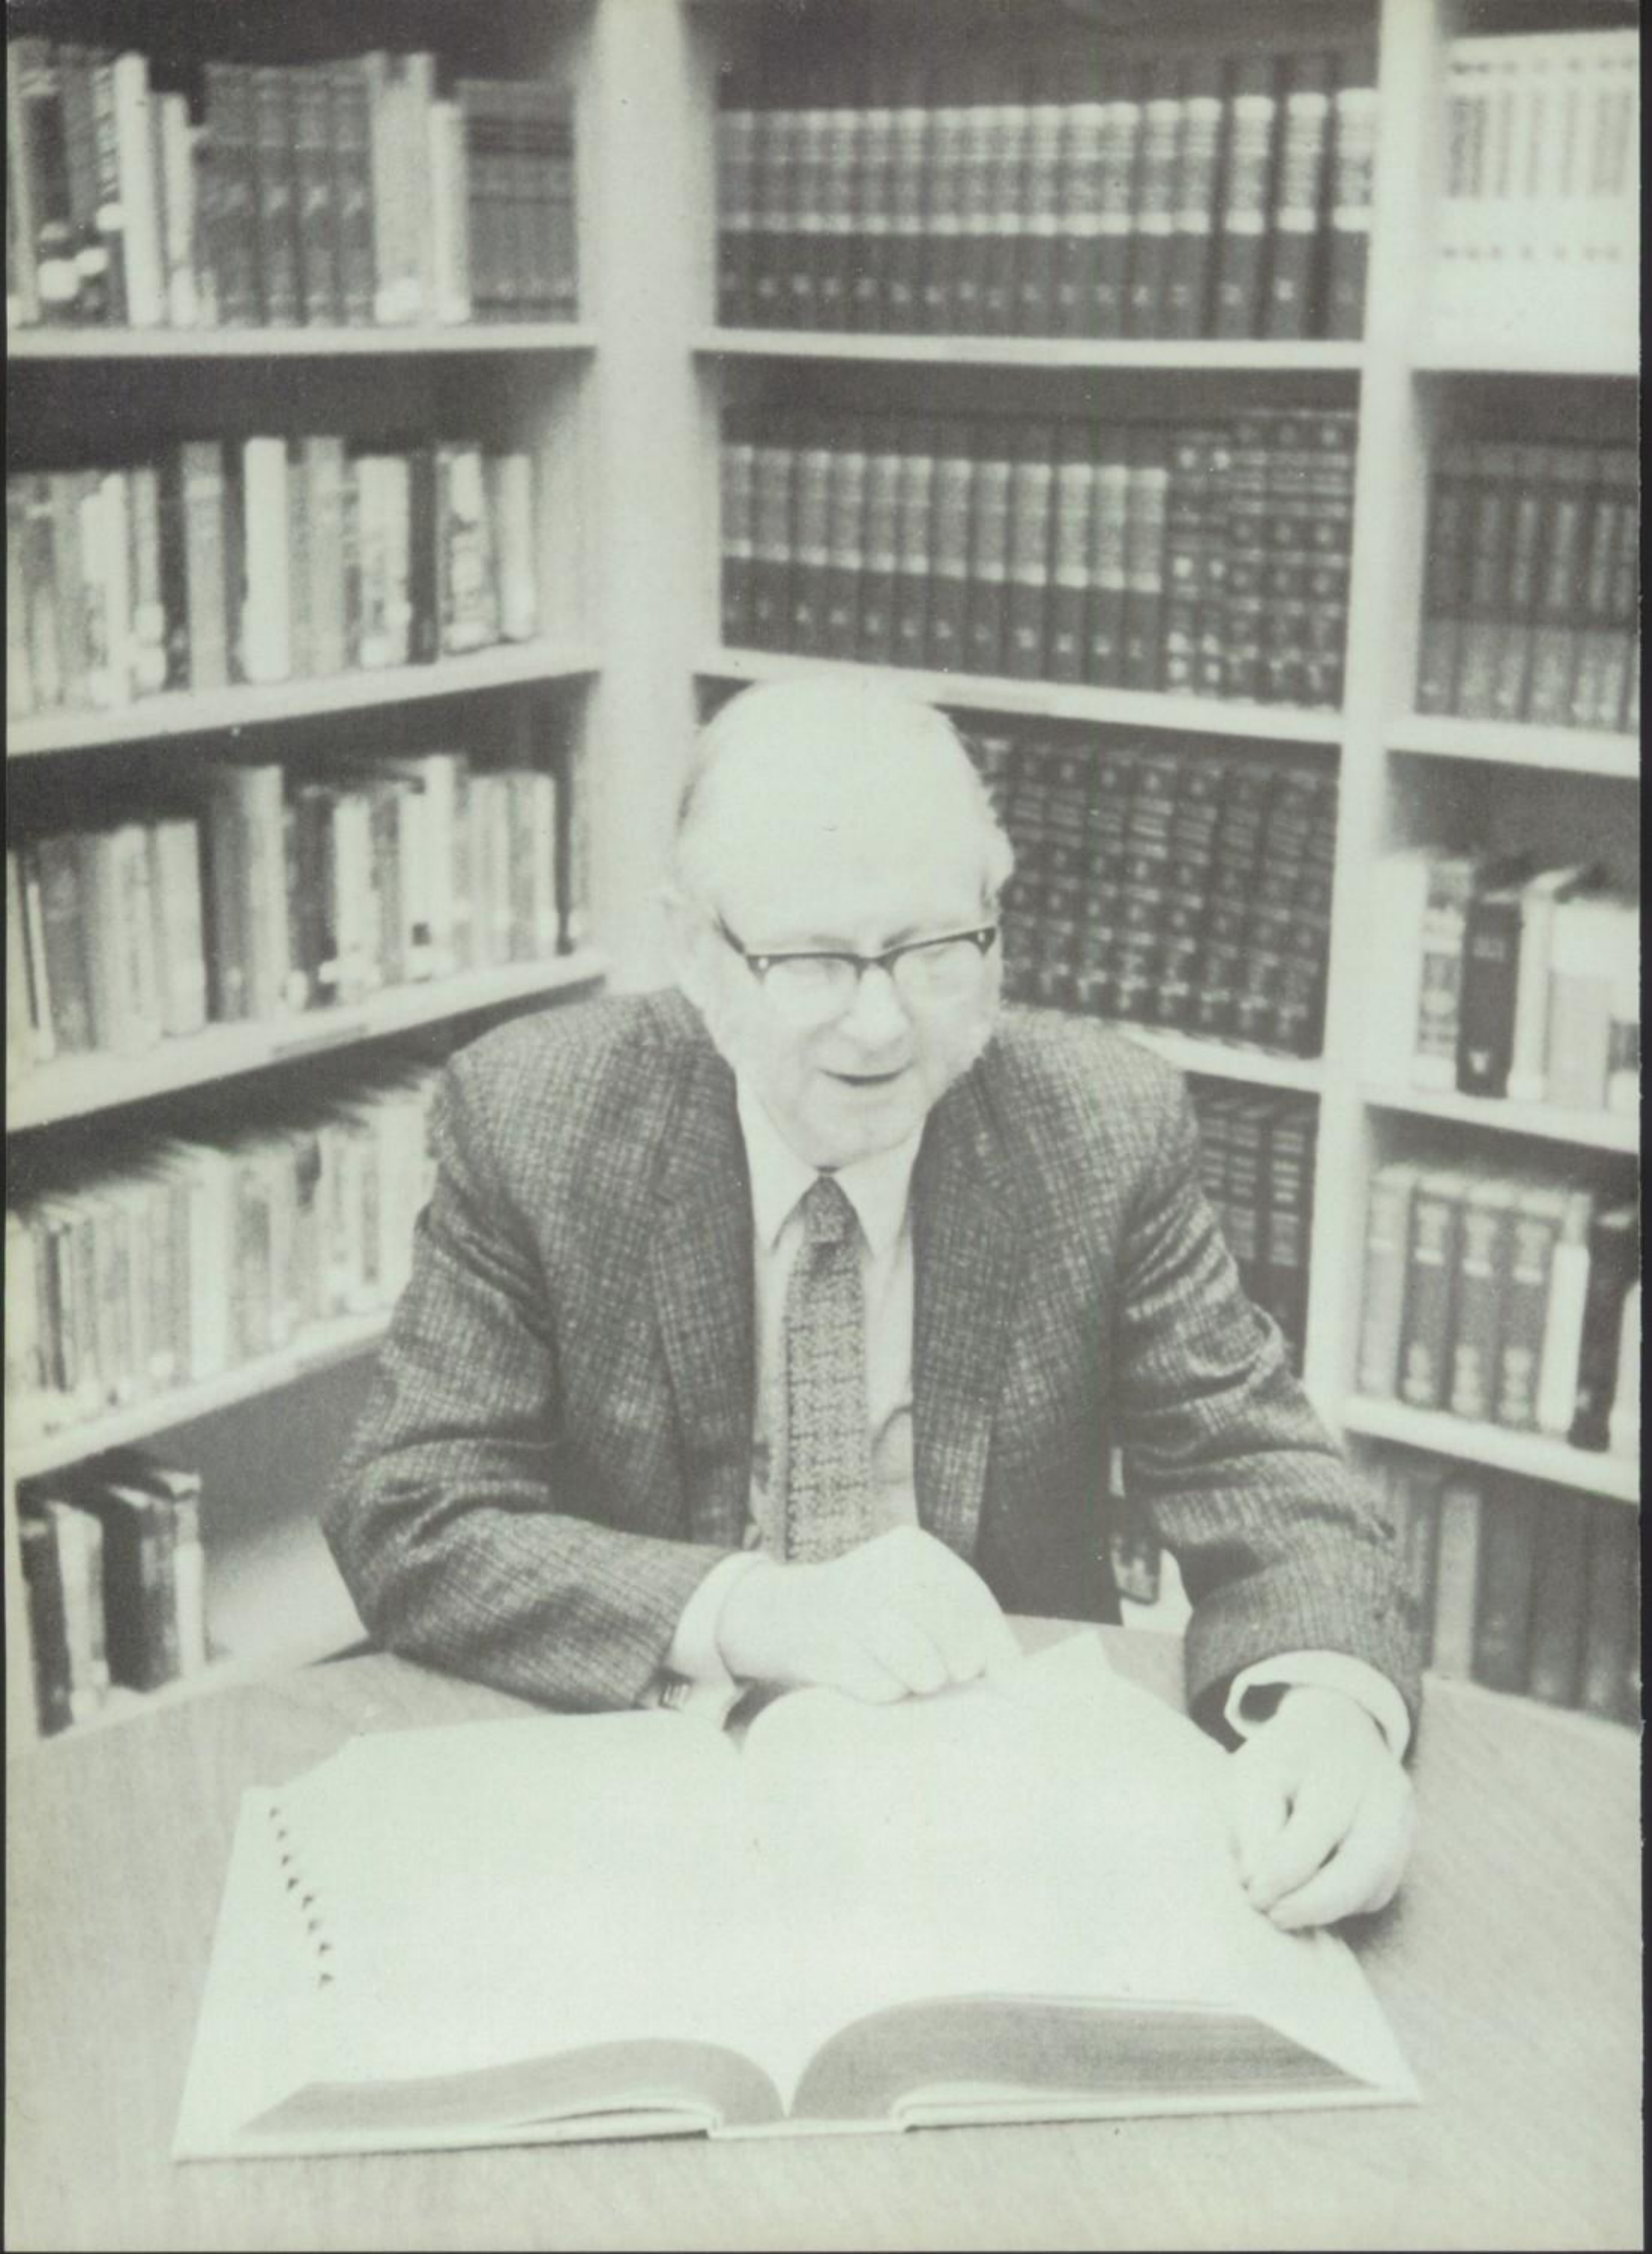
Youth is so very precious and short. But we were sure to find our way and smile doing it. The senior trip brings us out to face the world and we will leave some of our youth behind when seniors graduate.



GOODRICH HIGH SCHOOL

We Thought They'd Never End . . .

We thought the days would never end but we know they must. Peace and tranquility come to you and you reflect on days past. At this time it seems as if the whole world is quiet—and alone.



Curriculum and Co-Curriculum

The curriculum of a small school like ours has to be severely limited. Because the kids of today have such varied interests, which should be developed through the school system, a committee of teachers and students have been trying to make substantial improvements for next year. Although they have run into difficulties as a result of half-days, a tight budget, and a general lack of facilities, they have devoted much of their time towards making improvements for our future years at Goodrich.

Then the busy year went rushing by. And for administrators a school year is a busy year. Whether it is scheduling classes or bus runs, selling bonds; or typing memos, one was assured that the administration was always busy. Yet the busyness of a school year, can never be measured in quality during the present. Only time and ourselves can judge what effect this administration and it staff have done for us.

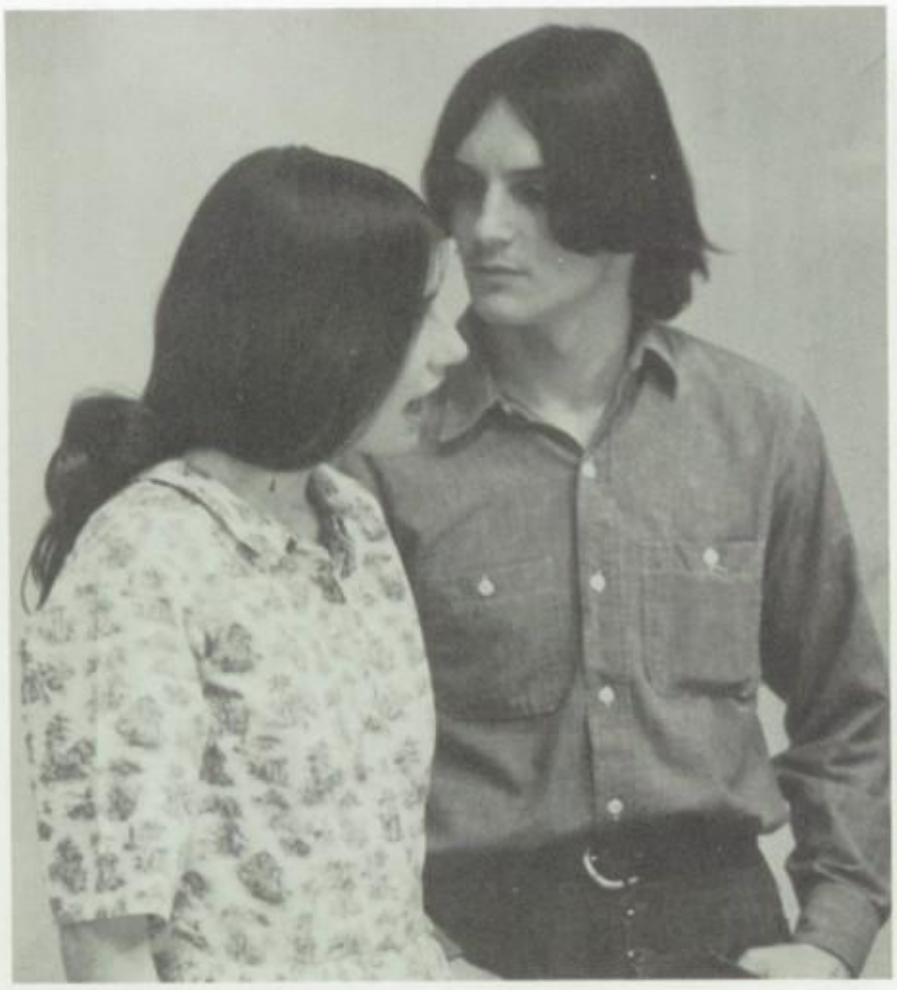
1984: Juniors Reflect Orwell



Juniors took a serious turn in presenting this play that looks into our political and social future. Possible? Anything is possible and the performance of 1984 reflects what the "system" can become.

Seniors Give Us Gramercy Ghost

Believe in ghosts? Seniors attempted to amuse us with their thoughts as they gave an entertaining presentation of this delightful play. A mixture of hard work, commendable acting and attentive directing contributed to their success.

Seniors

Those were the days: suffering through Econ, Government and English . . . so we can put it all together for scholarship tests, college, occupations and life. Reflecting on these activities are sports, Washington Club, the senior play, etc., to break the monotany of education and to prepare you for the world.

Athletics

We'd fight and never lose . . . despite the fact that some losses were apparent, it was a truly successful year for athletics. A football championship, new coaches for an exciting basketball season and another year full of promising athletes for the future were part of the success.

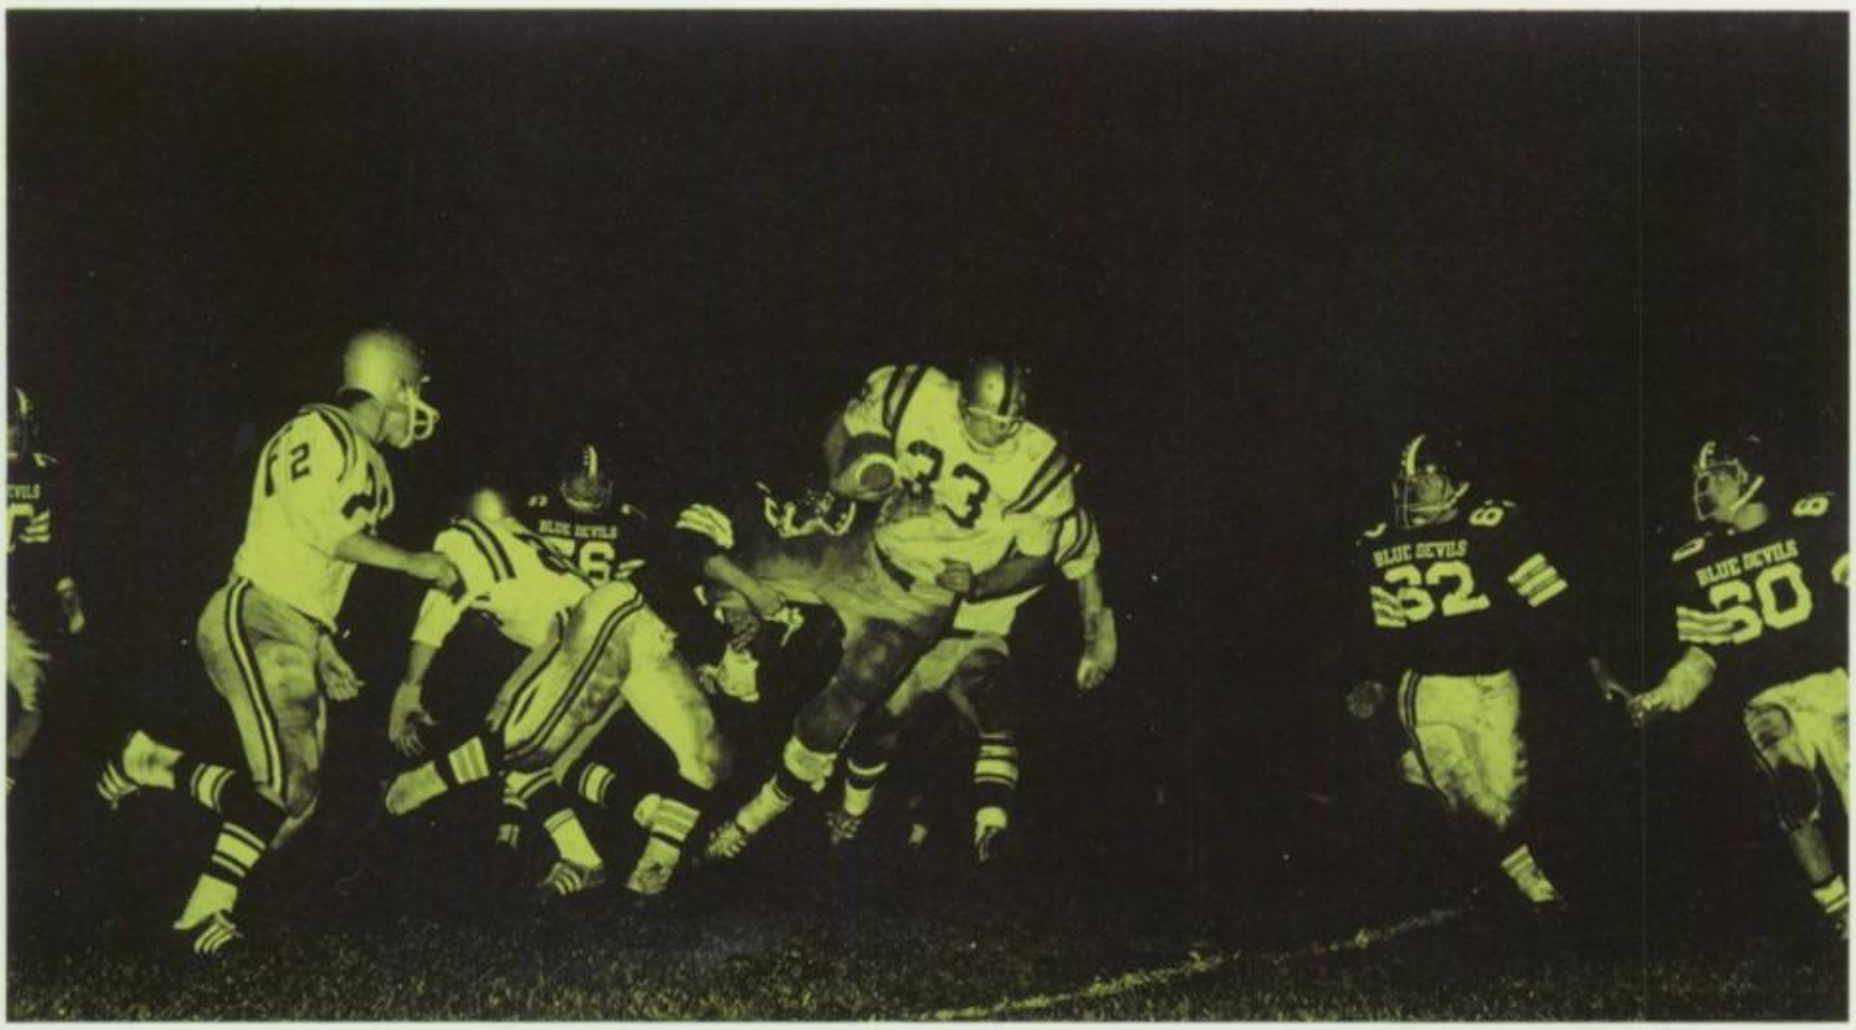
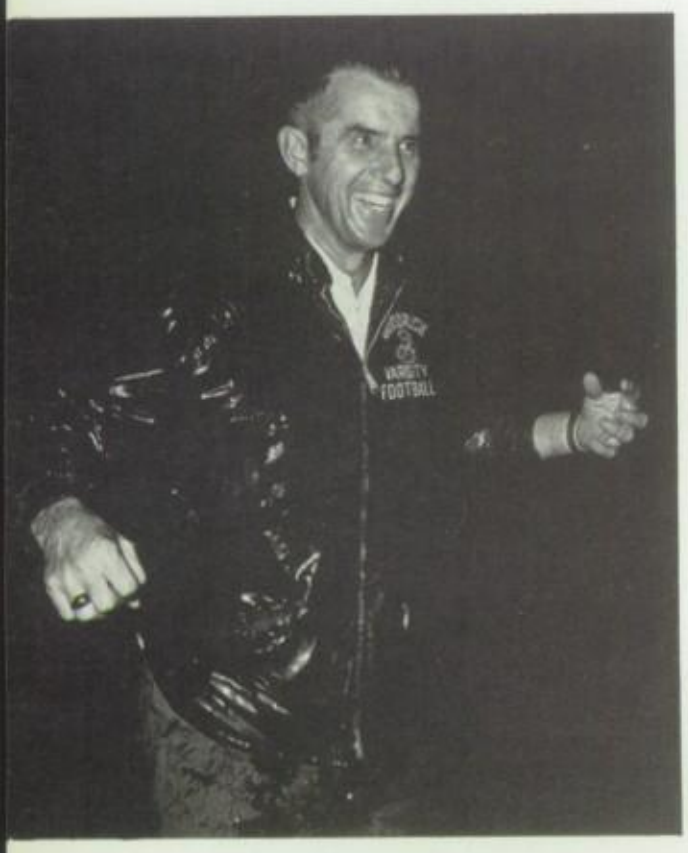
The "Mighty Martians" have completed their most successful season out of the last nine with a record of 7-1. The Martians were well on their way to an undefeated season by beating Byron, Hartland, and Lake Fenton, respectively. Then disaster struck, Linden upset the Martians and ruined their hopes for an undefeated season. Martians finished up the season by manhandling the Wolves and clobbering the Black Hawks 24-0 to clinch first place in the "Surban C Conference".





We're Number "1"

Our boys would fight and never lose as they beat Byron in the final plays of the game. Our team lost their hopes for an undefeated season after losing their first game to Linden by eight points. Finishing the season by beating the Black Hawks they clinched the first championship for Goodrich in ten years.

"So long as enthusiasm lasts,
so long is youth still with us."
David Starr Jordan

Yes, enthusiasm will stop youth from escaping us. Everyday life seems to hold more troubles and more sadness. Seniors are always saying, "I can't wait to get out of this place" but on the night of graduation what are they thinking? They are going into the unknown—all of their lives school was there. Go into it with enthusiasm and never let your ideas become old. The trouble and sadness will be there but happiness and success will overcome these. Look back on school days not with bitterness or sadness but with happiness. Those WERE the days we thought would never end.
